Enlarged and Improved. Special Accommodations for Commercial Men. Telephone and Street Railway Communication with all parts of the City.

DEAR SISTER:

You are one of a Committee, standing approved by our Synod of Ohio at its late meeting in Columbus, to constitute a Synodical Home Missionary Society. To you I shall look for wise counsel and prayerful upholding of my hands in this work.

Its object, as I understand it, is, primarily, to develop an interest in Home Missions among the women of our Presbyterian churches, should there be any who have not included home work in their Savior's command, "Go, teach all nations:"—secondly, to gather the reports from the churches, in order to make a full statement to Synod next fall:—lastly, to act as a medium of communication between the Executive Committee in New York and the Presbyterial societies, thus relieving the secretaries of a large and burdensome correspondence.

Will you, as representing this work in your Presbytery, consult with other members within your bounds, and report to me any progress during the year; whether you have any organized Home Mission Presbyterial Society; and, if not, whether a separate organization is deemed desirable?

We do not, I am sure, desire in any way to interfere with any existing plan of work in any Presbytery, nor to dictate to any church how it shall do its work. The work is one; therefore, if this branch of church effort is at present co-operative with and moving along with other missionary work, so let it remain.

Only let us emphasize that this is a new privilege, requiring a new tithe; another open door of opportunity. Let us hear the voice of the Lord bidding us enter in and occupy till He come. While reaching out our right hands to feed souls perishing beyond the seas, with our left let us give the Bread of Life to the hungry who are brought to our doors.

The time was when a few boxes of clothing to a missionary on the frontier, or to a school, was all that was expected of the women of the church. But there is a rapidly increasing demand upon them now for schools and teachers, for places of worship and means of furnishing boarding schools, where Mormon mothers and Indian women and children can learn the truth as it is in Jesus. There is a call upon every Christian to do what may be done to redeem our land from ignorance and the power of error.

I regret to announce that MRS. C. N. OLDS declines to act as State Secretary, because of ill health. Her place will be filled temporarily by MISS ALICE G. PATTERSON.

All moneys must be sent through Presbyterial Treasurers, to MRS. G. D. HARRINGTON, COLUMBUS, with full statement of objects to which they are to be applied.

May God speed His work,

MRS. S. H. McMULLIN.

GLENDALE, OHIO, November 15, 1882.

REV. AND DEAR SIR:

The General Assembly of 1882 adopted the report of its Standing Committee on Home Missions, as follows:

"The General Assembly hereby reiterates its former recommendations, that the several Synods appoint Ladies' Synodical Committees, to co-operate with the Woman's Executive Committee, in more thoroughly organizing the work in the Presbyterian Churches."

The Synod of Ohio, at its late meeting in Columbus, appointed a committee of women as a Synodical Committee on Home Missions, whose duty it should be to organize and stimulate efforts for the increase of interest in Home Missions among the female members of the Presbyterian Church of the State.

The undersigned was appointed President of this Committee, and seeks your aid and support, with a feeling of her insufficiency for these things, and with a deep sense of responsibility for the prosperity of the work thus entrusted to her.

Will you not urge the women of your congregation to do what they can for this work? Have them report their names, and their methods of work, to MRS. S. H. MCMULLIN, GLENDALE, OHIO. Have the Presbyterial Treasurer report all funds to the State Treasurer, MRS. G. D. HARRINGTON, COLUMBUS, O. In this way we may come before Synod, at its next meeting, with a good account of what we, as a State, have been able to do for our native land.

The work has increased in interest, and the call for help was never so loud. Our Board is in debt; and the demands are so urgent—how can they retrench? Last year they asked for fifty thousand, this year for five hundred thousand. We are aware that, for many years, churches have prepared boxes, and sent them to missionary families; this we would like continued, but our special work, now, is educational. We must raise money for schools and teachers' salaries; that by the power of knowledge, as it is in Christ Jesus, we may rescue men from the miseries of ignorance and superstition. We must thus mould the masses that come to our shores, and the "exceptional classes" of our countrymen, that the future of this land may be more grand and glorious than the past has ever been.

A pastor's warm indorsement and cordial support are an omen of success in such organizations as ours, while his indifference discourages. We ask your sympathies and your prayers. "Help those women that labor with you in the gospel."

This is the cause of the weak and ignorant of our sex. As mothers, as sisters, as women, we feel for them, and plead for their redemption. God speed the day when our land shall be Immanuel's land; and its houses, everywhere, the habitations of righteousness.

Very truly and respectfully,

Mrs. S. H. McMULLIN.

Dear Brother

I have waited until almost the limit of my time in which to report to you in order to get in all the reports possible from our State — Your additional grant of time, to the 1st of this month, has enabled me to hear from a number of Presbyteries from whom I wrote again recently stirring up their minds &c — Although somewhat discouraged by the want of response in some cases, and running back of interest and effort on the part of many Presbyteries, when I remember that our Canada work for Home Missions, is the only one in any systematic or organized way, it only in its beginnings, & that for twelve we can only in fact at present be completed, my optimism as to Report is not altogether discouraging — (Although the Missionary Spirit of the

These have been distributed to each Presbytery, though very few have been received this year in response — As soon the Presbyteries had been organized they had already sent out their own Blanks — previously to me — In some cases where there were no Presbyterial organizations, the sending out Blanks to Churches have fallen to Eight local organizations, of which the Sign. Com. of the Presbytery were not even aware — Our State Leaders being so recently appointed, most of the funds from Local Societies have been sent direct to New York — I suppose — Hoping that my Report may prove at least intelligible — & that the future work in our State may furnish Statistics — such more satisfactory — & that God whose work it is, may direct & bless it — I remain

Yours Sincerely

P.S. The letter & report have been detained for me — at until today the 12th immediately

Women to the Church, but have a done great deal of harm by the Foreign work, and the efforts. Many seem to feel frustrated for that. I think when the claims of the Home Church are more fully presented to them, with the responsibilities toward it and plans prepared for systematic effort in that direction also, this heart & spirit will embrace it too, & that we shall soon witness great enlargement in the work.)

The efforts come to me in such diverse forms, that I scarcely know how to shape my efforts from them.

As you will see, the Executive & Cleveland Presbyterial Societies, on the one hand in the State organized Societies for Domestic Home Missions; and have decided for work within their bounds exclusively — whilst Philadelphia Presbyterial Society is under the auspices of the work in its organization — and some other Presbyterial organizations & efforts for the same & the Presbyterial Societies in Toledo & Columbus Ohio & Detroit Michigan & Chicago Illinois & Indianapolis Indiana already established — I think that there will be a number of the Foreign Presbyterial Societies, at their Annual Meetings to-come very soon, to include the Home work in their organizations, so as to make it systematic — Many of the weaker Presbyteries do not think themselves able to support two Missionary Societies — but that is certainly a mistaken view — & I think the Missionary Committees in our State here done should awaken it in the localities in which they were laid — as well as the Presbyterial Societies of Home Missions — and perhaps even the Sending out of the Blank Books for Reports — now issued & all attention & the services & suggestions & desirabilities of organizations have in all things of begun —

Overture 215: from the Synod of Ohio, regarding Young Peoples' Offerings. Your Committee feel that whatever relief from unnecessary complications may be reached by granting the overture in this special case, it is time that a broader principle should be enunciated which will place not only one society, but all societies and associations connected with a Presbyterian Church upon one common basis, thus avoiding all unnecessary complications, such as already exist or are sure to arise among these various organizations. We would therefore recommend:

1. That the contributions of all the societies be reported to the Session of the Church for its approval before being remitted. ~~Approved~~.

2. That individuals and societies may have power to direct how the their gifts are to be distributed, always povided that the objects named belong to the work or Boards of the Presbyterian Church, and in case other preference is expressed, the same be subject to the decision of the Session.

3. There shall be no contributions to outside objects except by consent of the Session.

4. All contributions by the church societies shall be reported in the regular church columns in the Minutes of the general Assembly as the contribution of the church, the Sunday School, and all the auxiliaries being parts of the church.

5. The Treasurer of each Session shall report to all the Boards of the Church the sources of thse contributions.

We further recommend that a Committee be now appointed by the Moderator upon this whole subject, and report to the ~~Assembly~~ next Assembly.
